

Every day in Ontario, nearly 20 young workers sustain lost-time injuries or are killed on the job.
#JustSayIt

Learn how to stay safe on the job and on the roads.

3rd Annual Youth Safety Conference

May 10, 2014 - 8:30 am to 2:00 pm
 Collège Catholique Samuel-Genest
 704 Chemin Carson, Ottawa

Connect with potential employers and safety experts

Celebrate the Hero
 Inspirational speaker Nick Foley shares anti-bullying strategies that focus on the daily hero – not the bully

Get information, ask questions at dozens of kiosks
 Meet the Ottawa Police Service, Ottawa Public Health, Ministry of Labour...and more!

Experience
 interactive sessions and displays

Witness a day in the life of a crash victim with the Ottawa Hospital PARTY program

See the effects of alcohol
 Try the impaired vision goggles; find out how and when alcohol affects your body with the Intoxiclock

Ever operated an excavator?
 Try the Union of Operating Engineers' simulator

Learn
 safety skills you need - all in one place

Get your Worker Health and Safety Awareness certificate Mandatory for all workers in Ontario on July 1, 2014

Be in control behind the wheel
 Team M.A.S.C. (Mastership of Automobiles, Safety and Control) will offer tips for safe driving as well as making sure your car is safe

FREE ADMISSION

For 15-24 year olds but space is limited so sign up by April 30 to reserve your spot. Free admission includes lunch, a hoodie, a gift bag and entry in prize draws.

www.ottawasafecommunities.ca to register and get more info

 facebook.com/pages/Safe-Communities-Ottawa @JustSayItOttawa